WHY AMOR IS GOING TO STAND IN VANCOUVER DISTRICT.—It is well known that the leader of the Provincial Ku Klux has abandoned the canvass for the Commons in Victoria District and is going to leave a clear field for Messrs Helmecken and Nathan by trying to run in for Vancouver District. His reason for doing so will be best illustrated by an old trapper's story who said—"Stranger, I can tell you a story of my dog and a beaver, that will be worth something I reckon. My dog had got after one of them animals once, and they had a devil of a time to see which would beat; the beaver ran into the water, the dog followed him onto a log, over it, under it, the dog gaining all the time on the beaver. At last the beaver made for the bank, the dog in hot pursuit. Seeing no way for escape from the dog, who was passing him closely, the beaver ran up a tree. 'Run up a tree!' exclaimed an aspirant for literature, 'the beaver is webfooted and can't climb a tree.' 'Generally not,' replied the trapper, 'but stranger, don't you see, for the beaver was obliged to climb that tree, for my dog was a crowder of him.' And so it is with Amor. Messrs Helmecken and Nathan are 'a crowder of him' in this district and he'll try and climb the Vancouver District tree to get out of their way.

FROM SKEENA.—The steamer Otter, Capt Lewis, arrived from Skeena and the Northern ports yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. Purser Smith has kindly furnished us with the following memorandum. The Otter arrived at Skeena, on Monday, the 17th July, at 10 o'clock a.m. 78 hours from Victoria. Left the next day for Metlakatla and Fort Simpson, called at the mouth of Skeena took passengers on board, and ran across to Skiddaway, arrived at 8 p.m. Since the Otter visited the above place last, the Indians have been very troublesome, a great quantity of liquor having been taken up there in canoes from Victoria. The Indians report the Byzantine cruising of Comodore, whaling. Called at Bella Bella, Bella Coola, Fort Rupert and Comox on the way down; left the latter place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The miners report the road being completed for 5 miles, Woodcock being unable to get men on account of having no provisions. The Nelsons started up the river the day after the Otter arrived. Two canoes arrived from the forks the day before the Otter left—no news or passengers. The Otter brought down a quantity of coal and some iron from the Queen Charlotte Coal Mine.

JEAL'S CIRCUS will arrive this evening from Puget Sound, and will perform tomorrow evening for the first time. The Jeal Sisters were born on Puget Sound, left for Australia with their mother 16 years ago, and returned to Olympia a few days since to find their old father alive and well off and ready to jump out of his epidermis with joy at the sight of his daughters. While sailing in a sloop with their mother from Stellacoom to Olympia in 1853 the sloop was upset and the mother, placing the two girls on the bottom of the boat, contrived to keep afloat until the next day when all were saved.

'SQUIMALT FOREVER.—Yesterday morning Thomas Rabson appeared in the Police Court to answer a charge of having obstructed officer Hunter in the discharge of his duty. Hunter, as custom-house officer, was inspecting some sheep brought ashore by Rabson from the Zsalous. Rabson objected and raised an oar, when the officer drew a pistol. Rabson was convicted and fined $25 by the Magistrate.

THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.—Our contemporary of the Mainland Guardian has a very sensible leading article upon the appointment of the Hon Mr Treach to the Lieutenant Governorship of this Province. It thinks he will have a fair trial and will be judged by his acts. If he does his duty he will be supported and respected. It expresses a hope that the people of Victoria will have the good taste to give him a fitting reception.

TO BE FORCED DOWN.—Our Exclusive Dispatches state that the Washington Treaty will be forced down the throats of the Prince Edward Islanders. Had the little island joined the Confederation when asked to do so she would have had a 'say' in the Treaty. Now she is considered of too little importance to be even consulted.

THE PRINCE ALFRED'S PASSENGER LIST.—The list of passengers by the Prince Alfred will be found under the heading of our third Exclusive Dispatch this morning, together with a number of Canadian news items that will not appear in any other local paper until tomorrow morning. Among the passengers are our old pioneer friend Major Downie, and Mr Chas Good.

THE UNITED STATES FRIGATE CALIFORNIA, 20 guns, which is to be the flagship on the North Pacific station, Capt J B Clitz, arrived at Callao from Boston on the 9th inst, en route to San Francisco. After the arrival of the California at San Francisco Admiral Winslow's flag will be transferred to her.

THE CANCER CURE.—The U S State Department, in reply to letters asking for the condensation plant, the recently discovered cancer remedy, informs applicants that the supply received is exhausted. The success of the remedy, in all cases in which it has been used, is re-affirmed.

ON THE WAR.—The British bark Kenilworth, American ship Otogo, American ship Helen Morris, American bark Delaware and British ship Maria Helen are on the way from San Francisco to load lumber at Burrard Inlet for foreign ports.

THE GREAT FIRE AT SAN FRANCISCO was checked after having destroyed $150,000 worth of lumber and created a scarcity in a market where there was previously a glut.

POLITICAL.—We learn that a requisition to Mr S Duck of this city, asking that gentleman to allow himself to be put in nomination for the Legislative Assembly is in course of signature in this community. The requisition has been started by influential parties, and should Mr Duck consent to stand we regard his election as quite certain. He has been elected since 1862 and is universally respected, just the type needed in the Legislature. We trust Mr Duck may be induced to stand.

NEW WESTMINSTER.—The Seymour Artillery, under command of Lieutenant Scott, engaged in target practice on Monday, distance 1200 yards. Several shots passed through the target. Mr Holbrook received a warm welcome home on his return from England. Forest fires are raging in the rear of the city.

MR CORA has reduced the rate of admission to 50 and 25 cents. Who will not go now and take a chance in 100 prizes? Admirals Farragut and Winslow have kindly extended their patronage to the entertainment for this and the following nights. The entertainment is of a moral and interesting character and as a magician the Madame excels.

PASSED UP.—The railway and geological surveying parties left New Westminster for Yale on the steamer Lillock yesterday morning. A few additional to the force was made at New Westminster. Amongst those who joined them at that place were sergeants McMurphy and Rylett, ex-Royal Engineers.

The principal witness was a tyb of the Bella Bella tribe who had acted as agent in the purchase of the liquor. The case was postponed until to-day, when other witnesses will be examined. Mr McCreight, instructed by Mr Jackson, for the prisoner.

THE DEATH OF MR WILLIAM EMERY.
22 MARKFAM, NORTHAMPTON,
ENGLAND, June 14, 1871.

To the Editor of the British Colonist:
DEAR SIR,—I am very much obliged to you for the kind way in which you have noticed the death of my son, Wm Emery, in your paper. It is a great satisfaction to my mind that you could bear so pleasing a testimony to his conduct and perseverance in business since he arrived in your colony. I feel I have lost an affectionate son, and it is no small consolation to me that he had the esteem and respect of his fellow-citizens; and I would avail myself of this opportunity of expressing my sincere thanks to you and all those friends who so deeply sympathised with me in my loss, also the kind feeling shown in paying their last tribute of affection to one who was so dear to me.
Please be so kind as to insert this humble expression of my gratitude in your next impression and you will oblige
Your truly, W. EMERY.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.
Eastern States.
INDIANAPOLIS, July 25.—The Democrat State internal committee at a meeting held here today adopted unanimously the following resolutions: Resolved that we recognize in Hon Thos A Hendricks as the unanimous choice of the Democrats of Indiana as their candidate for the Presidency in 1872, and recommend that every honorable effort be made by our fellow citizens to secure his nomination and election.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The returns to the department of aggregate numbers to July 1st, shows the increase of sugar cane to be greater this year than last, in South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana and Texas, an increase ranging from five to fifteen per cent. The condition of crops generally is below average, except in Alabama and Texas.

NEW YORK, July 26.—A private letter from Para, Brazil, says cholera has resumed the malignant form there. Nearly every one in the city had died. The English Consul had died a few days before and his wife was dying. The Brazilian physicians were losing nearly all their patients with fever. All strangers are liable to take fever at Para and nearly every Portuguese who emigrated to Para during the past six or eight months has died.

Several steamers which lately arrived at New York from Para were quarantined in the Lower Bay, but the last steamer from Rio was allowed to reach her dock though she had touched at Para.

A dispatch from Washington says information has been received that Catecazy, the Russian Minister, will be recalled.

The horse disease is still making sad havoc among the railroad horses of New York.

The Independent Volunteers of the Ancient Order Hibernian, have called a meeting to be held next Saturday evening. This Society, in the words of the call, 'was formed on the 12th inst in the Hibernian Hall, by the unanimous decision of all the patriotic Irish soldiers present and will be no delusion.' The names of the officers attached to the call are the same as those found on a paper taken from the person of one of the rioters on his way to the riot.

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—A terrible accident occurred at 10 p.m. yesterday on the Toledo and Wabash railroad, six miles from this city. A freight train of thirty cars loaded with grain going south, collided with a passenger train on which laborers were returning from work, of these six were killed outright and four others seriously injured, but little hope of their recovery. Fully half of them were killed or lost injured—some critically. The collision occurred on a short level, and neither engineer was aware that their train was on the track till it was too late to prevent the collision. The engineers and conductors jumped in time to save their lives. Both engines and a large number of cars were demolished.

Europe.
LONDON, July 25.—Dispatches from Madrid in relation to recent ministerial crisis are somewhat confused. It now appears that members of the cabinet formed by Soriano, have taken the oath of office. The Minister of War acts as the Minister of State ad interim. Many Spanish officials have tendered their resignations. Sitings of the House will commence on Monday next.

The Standard of to-day publishes details of a series of earthquakes which recently occurred at the Philippine Islands: more than 200 persons were swallowed up, every one of them being almost instantly killed. Sixty bodies of the dead will be recovered. The rest of the inhabitants have left the islands which have been utterly depopulated.

NEW YORK, July 25.—A movement is going on in France to guarantee the Pope temporal sovereignty over Corsica. The Pope wishes to publish a syllabus in regard to the occupation of Rome by the Italian government, and declaring that measures withholding from him his temporal powers are void. Measures have been taken already in Rome to prepare for the choice of the next Pope. It is proposed to choose one who may be moderate in his ideas and not unduly to Italy, and by this means effect a compromise with the Italian government. Cardinal Ciarallo de Pietro, is mentioned. The disposition made by the French chamber of the petitions in regard to the temporal power of the Pope is equivalent to laying them on the table.

DUNDEE, July 24.—A great meeting was held on Saturday to protest against the eviction of a large number of the poor. Violence is threatened if necessary to resist the eviction.

VERSAILLER, July 24.—Thiers refused to accept the proffered resignation of Favre, as minister of foreign affairs.

NEW YORK, July 26.—A letter from Paris says an epidemic of a serious nature prevails among the horses of Paris Cab Co. Two hundred died lately in a few days.

LONDON, July 26.—The latest development as to the Spanish Ministry, which has been the subject of some days, is that S-nor Serrillo announced in the Cortes yesterday that the members of the Cabinet are all old Progressives. This implied that the combination formed by Serrillo and his associates failed to collect and that a new Ministry, made up entirely from the liberal element of Spanish politics, had been formed by Serrillo.

The English Counsel at Athens announces that he has received and forwarded to his Government most heart-rending accounts of famine in Persia.

Special dispatches from Constantinople say the famine in Persia is causing and has, or, it is rumored that Bismarck is to be created Duke of Luxembourg.

The story of arms discovered in Liverpool is in some way connected with Fenianism.

Arrangements are being made in Paris to welcome Andrew Johnson, who is expected to arrive early. Eighteen Communists will be tried together at the first sitting of each Court Martial.

Second Dispatch.
Canada.
OTTAWA, ONT, July 25.—The Times, the Government paper, states on authority that neither Sir John A Macdonald nor any member of the Cabinet has any idea of visiting England this year in reference to the Washington Treaty.

HALIFAX, July 25.—Members of Prince Edward Island Legislative Council and members of the Assembly are opposed to the treaty and have memorialized the Lieut Governor asking that an extra session be called to consider the Washington Treaty.

The Islander, a Government organ, says semi-officially that the request will not be acceded to, and in regard to the treaty, which is viewed with some favor, their exports to the U S being fish and oils, the same paper says the Island Government, by the advice of the Governments of Great Britain and Canada, has taken measures to have the provisions of the treaty put into operation at once without waiting for the formal approval of the Legislature.

Advice from Labrador via Newfoundland do not confirm the reports of a disastrous storm there which was recently published in the Toronto papers.

MONTEAL, July 25.—There is considerable excitement over the discovery of the plot to organize in this city a filibustering expedition against Cuba. The committee in Montreal don't wish for any more men from this district, but it is said that in London, Toronto and Hamilton are recruiting vigorously. A lot of ammunition has been purchased in Montreal.

Europe.
LONDON, July 26.—The famine in Persia is said to be of a most alarming character. Deaths number 3000 daily and so great is the distress that dead bodies are eaten by the survivors, and in some cases men, women and children are killed to render the supply of food more abundant. The plague has also appeared among the Persians and the Turkish Government is compelled to draw a sanitary cordon along the border.

China.
HONG KONG, July 26.—Disturbances have occurred in Canton. A British gunboat has been dispatched there to afford protection to the English and other foreign residents.

A Good Country.
Archdeacon McLean, of Manitoba recently delivered a very interesting lecture at Toronto, Chief Justice Draper, in the Chair, upon the character of the North West. The following extract may not prove altogether uninteresting:—

"The soil was rich, dark, and loamy, capable of yielding in its virgin state from 35 to 55 bushels of grain, and even more if fertilised. He visited last fall the garden of a Canadian farmer who settled in Manitoba, and he was shown a crop of 1,400 bushels of fine potatoes. He also saw peas, parsley, onions, cucumbers, radishes, and in fact all kitchen vegetables growing most luxuriantly. A bad of runners attracted his attention, and, having measured them, he found some of them over 11 feet in height and some under 10. As to fruit culture little had been done in Manitoba as yet; but there were strawberries, raspberries, gooseberries, &c., in great profusion showing the extraordinary productiveness of the soil. The lakes and rivers were literally swarmed with fish, though in some parts of the Red River settlement fish was scarce in consequence of there being no market for the sale. An enterprising man could do well in catching and selling fish. Wild duck, wild geese, and other game are to be found in myriads, but for these also there is no such thing as a regular market. The swamps of Manitoba were not of the description usually found in Ontario. They were not Irish bogs, but hard bottoms, and could stock wade through them and browse. The river channels were usually deep and and the swamps could be drained with very little trouble, except a few that were periodically flooded. Though there was a scarcity of wood in some parts, in others vast quantities were obtainable, though enough for generations to come; the difficulty was that it was not equally distributed. The river banks were densely wooded with oak, elm, pine, and other timber, while outside of Manitoba proper there were millions of acres of woodland. There was plenty of stone for building purposes, and all that was required was the formation of a company to bring it from Lake Winnipeg and other points. There was also abundance of good clay for brick making. Dr Schultz had established a brick-yard and kiln, and many houses had been built with the bricks there made. The climate was very salubrious. Winter generally lasted from the middle of November to the middle of April, and the snow was from a foot to a foot and a half deep; nor did he ever see better sleighing than they had there. They were not subjected to a January thaw, and, in fact, they were enabled to black their boots at the beginning of winter and keep them free from mud and dust until spring. The atmosphere was clear and beautiful and particularly grand were the aurora borealis—indeed more beautiful than any sight he had ever witnessed. The Indians described the aurora as the 'dancing spirit of the dead.' In the spring the weather was delightful over-head, and in summer it was somewhat warmer than in this part of Ontario. The autumn, however, was the most beautiful season of all when they had their Indian summer, rivaling any other country. In illustration of this he related the Bishop's opinion. While standing and gazing upon the sky he remarked that never had he seen anything to equal its beauty save in one or two occasions in Southern Wales. He did not believe there was a more healthy climate in the world. As to who should go to Manitoba, there were two classes who were particularly needed there—farmers and mechanics. A man going there with cows able to assist in farming and taking out sufficient stock would be able to acquire a competency in a short time. A young farmer would also do well to emigrate there. He would here strongly urge a young man to take with him a warm-hearted, generous Canadian girl as a wife; for there was no comfort like home comfort and a wife would keep a young man in the path of integrity and help him on with loving words and deeds.

Those who have given any attention to the various billiard matches that have taken place in this city for some months past, must have heard of General Average, a small, sickly-looking individual who was well posted on the game and at any stage could give the general average and how each player stood. His name is S S Bamberger, and he has been in this city about three years. He is a man of education and intelligence, and often the remark has been made that his head is the largest portion of his body. For a number of years he lived in one of the Southern States, where he had a large plantation which he lost during the war; and, it is said, held a position in the Confederate army. His health for years has been broken down and he has been given up by his physicians several times. His family connections in the East are very respectable and wealthy and indeed he has friends in this city who have always been kind and charitable to him. Like many others who have been reduced from wealth to poverty he has committed disgraceful acts to the deep regret of his friends.

Yesterday morning he procured a blank check of J Sellman & Co, bankers. This he is charged with having filled up to the order of 'silver' for the amount of $152 25, signed with the name of L R Porter. This check he presented to the firm of Cohn & Frank, brokers, with whom he had on previous occasions some business transactions. Not having any suspicions whatever as to the genuineness of the check it was cashed for him and he departed. The check subsequently was presented to Saligman & Co, where it was pronounced a forgery. Mr Cohn at once sought the services of Messrs Johnson & Ansb, of the Private Detective Office, and entrusted the matter to their hands. These gentlemen with their usual diligence were not slow in their work and after looking round in various places frequented by Bamberger, proceeded to Market street wharf and in half an hour after the matter was first reported to them had their man in custody. Bamberger had engaged passage on the schooner Union under the name of Enrique Fries, paying $50 for his ticket. He was already on board the schooner, but when he saw one of the officers with Mr Cohn he concluded in his own mind that it would be best then and there to end his existence, which had so often been disappointed, by jumping overboard and drowning himself. Ansbro quickly secured some poles and tackle and rescued the man, who after being restored to consciousness was conveyed to the Station House and a charge of forgery entered against him. He was a pitiable object—shivering, sickly, wet through and through. His clothes were taken from him and he was covered with blankets. On his person was found $117 in coin, a lot of blank checks and bills made out for Porter & Lewis by whom it is said he was at times employed, being an expert penman and bookkeeper. During the afternoon it was also ascertained that he had presented a forged check for $120 to the Merchant's Bank and received the money—S F Alta.
